

For Your Glory

Joe Pringle & Ryan Smith

Whatever the call
Whatever the cost
All of our lives for the King of the lost
Forever we come to bring You praise

Whatever the course
Whatever the way
I'll follow You through the darkest days
Your word inside is a mighty blaze

All my days
We give You praise
You're the King of love
So bring Your light

For Your glory
We'll carry high Your torch
For Your glory
We'll live the highest call
For Your glory
We'll bridge the great divide
For Your glory
Your light can never hide

You're the voice that stills the storm
You're the Son that breaks the dawn
