

Today

Today

I'm leaving all my troubles behind
I'm letting go I'll follow the line
Holding on with all of my life

I see Your rising Son
We've only just begun

Today

I'm walking to the beat of Your heart
You take me all the way to the start
Stretch Your hand straighten the path

I'm found in open skies
Your heart it lives in mine

Today

I'm finding my first love again
I'm learning how to let You in
Trusting You with all that I am

The shadows fade away
It's You that clears the day

No more running wild

I'm Yours for life

You got me here

You got me

I hear Your call tonight

Your heart is mine

You got me here

You got me

You drew me out of the deepest sea woah

You gave my soul a song to sing woah

You took me up on the mountains high woah
I see my life in a different light woah
