

Worthy

Nikki Fletcher, Ryan Smith

Could it be that You're in control?
Now I see I don't know it all
But if You stripped it all away
I'd still be able to say

You're my God
None can compare
You're the one
You gave us our breath

And in Your shadow I will wait
To hear Your voice and know Your way

Glory
All that has breath give Him glory
We lift up our God who is always
Beginning and end You are
Let the earth sing
We lift up our hands and exalt thee
Redeemer of all
You have mercy
Above all be glorified

Worthy
You alone are worthy
You alone are holy
You alone are God
